Basic Detail Report

Bumble Bee

Date
n.d.

Primary Maker
Henry R. DiSpirito

Medium
Stone

Description
Stone carving depicting an bumblebee at rest. The bee is carved from one large stone and appears to be resting on something. The sculpture is not finely detailed and some of the detail has been lost due to the usage of this object in an outdoor sculpture garden. There is no signature visible on this object. The bumblee be is predominantly gray in color, but the base is discolored (see condition report) and there are other tones of color present throughout.

Dimensions
Overall: 10 1/2 × 10 1/2 × 6 in. (26.7 × 26.7 × 15.2 cm)