Gambling Tray

Date

c. 1900

Primary Maker

Mrs. Dick Francisco (Las-Yeh)

Medium

Marsh grass root , cladium mariscus, bracken fern root , western redbud, sedge root, deer grass

Description

Yokuts weavers took great pride in their gambling trays, bringing out their finest ones when women gathered to play dice games. It often took a year or more to weave such a piece. Francisco's outstanding technical and design skills are readily apparent in this impressive tray. Its perfect condition suggests that it immediately entered a private collection upon completion.
