

Splint Basket

Date

c. 1920-1930

Primary Maker

Dwight Jimerson

Medium

Black ash

Description

This ash splint basket was collected directly from its Seneca maker, Dwight Timerson, by the American anthropologist and museum collector, Dr. Frank G. Speck (1881-1950). After completing his degree under Dr. Franz Boas at Columbia University, Dr. Speck became professor of anthropology at the University of Pennsylvania. Mr.

Speck vast collecting have enriched the collections of many institutions such as the American Museum of Natural History and the National Museum of Canada.

Dimensions

Overall: 16 × 13 3/4 × 14 3/4 in. (40.6 × 34.9 × 37.5 cm)