

Basic Detail Report

Bag

Date

c. 1820

Primary Maker

Red River Metis

Medium

Trade cloth, glass beads, silk thread, silk ribbon

Description

Red River Metis Panel Bag composed of a red English wool top lined with striped English cotton, the stroud decorated with ribbon work, floral thread embroidery and beaded motifs of two rosettes and a central large double-curved figure, white seed bead edging at the top. At the bottom, a loom woven pony bead panel with cotton weft and sinew warp, a design of geometric motifs, on the edges and bottom, beaded tassels.

Dimensions

Overall: 15 1/2 × 9 1/2 × 2 1/2 in. (39.4 × 24.1 × 6.4 cm)