Basic Detail Report

Mask

Date
c. 1979

Primary Maker
Joe David

Medium
Wood (alder?), green, black & red pigments

Description
Joe David, a Nuu-chah-nulth (Nootka) artist from Vancouver Island, carved this mask in the style of the Tlingit who live in southeastern Alaska. His exploration of the Tlingit aesthetic is fully realized in the subtle three-dimensional modeling. The influence of cross-Northwest Coast styles is becoming increasingly important in the work of contemporary artists.

Dimensions
Overall: 9 × 7 5/8 × 4 in. (22.9 × 19.4 × 10.2 cm)