

Pendant

Date

500-1200

Primary Maker

Punuk (Siberian Yup'ik)

Medium

Walrus ivory

Description

This pendant is a striking example of ivory flat relief carving. It has an elliptical shape similar to the ivory snow goggles on the right. The eyes are set low and the nose/mouth is emphasized in a geometric way creating a pinched expression. The mouth is indicated by a small hole.
