Windham Valley in the Catskills, A Tollgate on the Susquehanna Turnpike

Date

1893

Primary Maker

Henry A. Duessel

Medium

Oil on canvas

Description

The painting depicts the landscape of Windham, NY, along the Batavia Kill river and what is now Route 23. Mountains rise in the background, overlooking the narrow river and the road, on which sits a sawmill in the foreground. There are a few houses sitting directly on the road as well, and farther down it is the turnpike. In the distance, there is a white bridge, and a white house that is believed to be Bump Tavern.
