Primary Maker

Felix Octavius Carr Darley

Medium

Pencil on paper

Description

Pencil on paper showing a woman crouching down and crying in front of two well-dressed men, the man on the right has his hand on a cannon. Another figure, presumably a man, leans against a mast support on the left, just behind what appears to be a desk. On the reverse of the paper are additional drawings, four in total, all with the appearance of being studies showing people in various poses, mostly men, but with one woman standing left of the center.
