Description

Scene on a street corner outside of a shop, depicting an older woman in a blue gown and white cap, presumably

Mrs. McCormick, berating three disheveled boys, while another boy on her other side looks on; a young mother in a lavender dress, straw bonnet, and black apron stands behind the boys, carrying a baby and holding a toddler by the hand. Produce sits outside of the window of Mrs. McCormick's store, and a painted sign hangs over the doorway. An awning and other shops on the cross street are shown in the background.
