Description

Color drawing in a brown wooden frame with interior gold border. Graphite on paper. A brick house with green shuttered windows and a porch is seen on the left. Surrounding the house are a red wooden shed (with birds atop), a very small red wooden building, and a small red brick structure. At the center of the drawing there is a grey wooden barn and shed. A long red wooden barn, with two adjoining sections, decorates the right side. A horse, two cows, and several chickens graze alongside the barn. In the bottom right is a red wooden hoghouse, a pigpen, and two pigs. There is a fence in the foreground and numerous trees and shrubs dot the landscape. Text at bottom reads "Residence of Mr. Peter J. Nellis, Palatine, NY." Dated: July 19, 1894
