Medium

Graphite and colored pencil on paper

Description

Color drawing in a red-brown frame with gold along the inside. Graphite on paper. Either a farmhouse and three outbuildings, or the first outbuilding is the cross-gable part of the house and there are two outbuildings. House has frieze band windows and pendants in the eaves of the side-gabled main part of the house. Farm buildings in the back are simpler. There is a road in front with a coursed stone retaining wall, steps leading up to the house and a driveway leading up to an outbuilding. A few tall trees in the drawing. Text at bottom reads "Old Homestead of Mrs. Charles Ehle. Fort Plain, NY." Back has one exhibit label.
