Description

Color drawing in a thick dark wooden frame with a gold inner portion, horizontal. Graphite on paper. White side-gabled farmhouse with green shutters and two chimneys. Seven other farm buildings appear: to the right of the house, an orange shed; to the left, a very small gray shed, two gray barns, and three smaller gray farm buildings. Many animals appear in this scene: two horses, a few cows, a herd of sheep, a group of poultry, a dog, and a turkey. There is one man in the center of the drawing. There is fencing around various portions of the yard, with one area very squarely fenced in. A cookpot is suspended on sticks in the center of the drawing. One large tree in front of the house, with a forest in the background and various bushes scattered throughout. Text at bottom reads "Residence of Mr. Chester Ottman. Carlisle, NY."
