Description

olor drawing in a black wooden frame with a thin gold inner portion and a white matte, horizontal. Graphite on paper. The two-story hotel is white with green shutters, one chimney, and an upper and lower porch. Series of glazed doors on the first floor and windows and one door on the second. The letters "HOTEL" appear in between the windows on the second floor, as well as on the gable of the building. "David Longshore Farmers Hotel" appears on a sign on the front roof of the building. A large brown barn appears to the left of the hotel, and there is a large beige brick building with a red door to the hotel's right. Three trees appear in the foreground and a number of others are in the background. There are four people on the upper porch and one person on the lower porch of the hotel. Two wide sets of railroad tracks run along the front of the drawing. Text at bottom reads "Farmers Hotel. David Longshore, Proprietor. Canajoharie. Montgomery Co. NY." The back has two exhibit labels. Dated: May 28, 1898
