Description

Black and white drawing in a black wooden frame. Graphite on paper. On the right side of the drawing is a two-chimney house with a wing extending to the left and right. The fenced in lawn contains numerous plants, shrubs, and trees, as well as a well and small pond. A large wooden barn, adjoined to four smaller wooden buildings, dominates the left side of the drawing. In front of these structures are fenced enclosures holding trees and bushes, as well as two cows and several chickens and other birds. A road runs in front of the residence, on which a horse pulls a carriage and a dog lays. Text at bottom reads "Residence of Mr. John Kilts, Stone Arabia, NY." Dated: July 28, 1894
