Description

Black and white drawing in a reddish-brown wooden frame with gold interior border. Graphite on paper. At the center of the drawing is a two-chimney wooden house with stone foundation. An extension with another chimney protrudes from the rear of the house on the left (alternatively, this may actually be a separate structure in very close proximity to the house). A few rows of trees and a well are in the front yard. A boy, man, and dog stand to the right of the house. Behind them is another wooden building and a corralled cow. On the left side of the house are three wooden sheds, several chickens, and two horses, one of whom is held by a man. Text at bottom reads "Residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Flanders, Flat Creek, NY." Dated: December 26, 1890
