

New York State Fair Produce Display

Date

c. 1930-1935

Medium

Photographic paper

Description

A large produce display, at the New York State Fair was created using a frame with horizontal spaces and a star within a circle in the center. The pattern within the frame was created with tomatoes and sweet peppers. In front of and on the top of the slanted display are bunches of celery. An American flag hangs above the display. Surrounding the display are decorated booths featuring more produce and educational presentations.