Farmers with Baskets of Eggs

Date

c. 1940-1950

Medium

Black and white film negative

Description

A man and a woman stand in a driveway next to carts loaded with wire baskets of white chicken eggs. The carts have pneumatic wheels and are likely made for the farm.

A wire basket of eggs is placed on the ground between the two carts. A second man stands to the left of the woman. He wears a dark suit and hat. Behind the group to the left is a one-story farm building. Behind the group to the right is a row of chicken coops fenced in with wire mesh fencing. The fence is several feet high. The farm was located in New York State.
