Description

A man stands by a wagon owned by the Brooklyn Creamery, his right hand on the door handle. He holds the handle of a crate of six full glass milk bottles in his left hand. He wears a pair of dark dress pants, medium colored dress shirt with light colored cuffs and color and dress vest. His shoes look to be leather and he wears a hat. The wagon is pulled by a single horse and also has L. Blodgett/Cazanovia (?)/Fine Dairy /Products/? Milk/Ice Cream painted on the side. A clapboard building is in the background on the other side of a plank sidewalk. On the top left are the leaves and branches of a tree. Some split wood is in the bottom left corner and a tool or implement in grass in the foreground.
