Description

A dirt country road passes by a farm. Two split rail fences are along the road. A field stone fence is also along the road on the right side. On the right beyond the fences is a farm with a barn and at least two outbuildings. The barn is of wood construction with windows on the facing side. A shed is on the roadside and another directly across the entryway. The doors of the farther shed are open. A large tree is between the closest shed and the barn.
