Sows and Piglets in a Pen

Date

c. 1900-1915

Medium

Photographic paper

Description

A scene on the Arthur Rick's farm, Titusville, New York of two sows and around a dozen piglets foraging and bathing in the mud in a fenced in area. The rustic fencing for the outdoor pen is made of boards stacked horizontally between posts. Branches and large pieces of gravel cover most of the ground that is visible. A raised area is on the left - a sow and three piglets stand on it. Farm sheds are barely visible in the background on the far side of the fence.
