Description

Exterior view of the John Cryan Horse Shoeing shop. A sign is prominently placed above the shop entrance. The sign also advertises "wood work" "and repairing." Two men stand in the doorway of the shop leaning on the frame of either side of the doorway. They both wear leather aprons at their waists. A third man stands to the right of the door with a hammer in his right hand. He is also dressed in work cloths and a half apron. A forth man poses on the left side of the doorway leaning on the seat of a bicycle and against a window. Identified on the back of the photo are (L to R) "unknown, Judd Dibble, John Cryan, unknown."
