Description

Outdoor Scene. A view of the Hearts Delight Farm owned by W.H. Miner in Chazy, Clinton County, New York. A large two, story building with a tower at one end stands prominently in the distance. The entrance to the farm is adorned with two large stone pillars or mounts. A monument of a building on top of a pillar is in the distance. This may be postcard #5 in a series by Henry M. Beach, a photographer of Adirondack sites and scenes in the early 20th Century.
