Brooktondale Farm 1947

Date

1947

Medium

Photographic paper

Description

A dirt road runs through the bottom half of the print, from the lower left corner to the middle of the right edge of the print. A milk carton sits near the side of the road in the bottom left corner. Rocks line the left side of the road. The road runs past a house that is located in the upper half of the print. A tree grows in the center of the print in front of the house. There are trees to the left of the house and hills in the distance behind the house. The words "Brooktondale 1947" are handwritten in ink at the bottom of the print. Brooktondale is a hamlet near the west town line in Caroline, New York.
