Brooktondale Farmland 1947

Date

1947

Medium

Photographic paper

Description

A man rides in a wagon pulled by two horses. The man is traveling on a road that runs from the left edge to the right edge of the print. The wagon and horses are slightly obscured by trees growing along the right side of the road. The road cuts across farmland, which dominates the bottom half of the print and a portion of the upper half. There are hills near the upper left corner. The print was taken in Brooktondale, a hamlet located near the west town line in Caroline.
