Description

Panoramic view of a farm in Herkimer County, New York.

On the right is an ell farmhouse with a porch extending the length of the addition on the back. Two other sheds or smaller one-story barns are between the house and the main barn. A windmill is between these two buildings. A fenced in area is behind the small barn on the left. Pigs are in the fenced in pen. The main barn is only partially in view on the left. It has a stable area added to the front of the building.
