Gathering Sap in the Sugar Bush

Date

c.1910

Medium

photographic print on heavy cardstock

Description

A man pours maple sap into a large, wooden box. There is writing on the side of the box, but it can not be read. The box is on a sled pulled by a yoked team of oxen. A second man removes a sap bucket from a tree near the heads of the oxen, gathering the sap into buckets on the ground. The ground is covered in snow.
