Threshing Grain with Belt-Driven Machinery

Date

c.1915

Medium

Real Photo Postcard

Description

Several farmers stand on a pile of grain or chaff pitching the fodder with hand tools into or away from the threshing machine. A steam traction engine is in the foreground and powers a thresher that is beyond the pile of grain or chaff. A wagon or other machinery is in partial view on the left side of the photo. The operation is set-up in a vast field.
