Description

View of Lefflers' Homestead, possibly in Schuyler County,

New York. End view of an 1880s barn. Part of the vertical siding has been removed on the left side. Two adjacent, connected sheds are in front and to the left of the barn. The one on the far left has an open front and metal roof. A wagon is inside. Wagon wheels lean on the shed to the directly to the right of this shed. Split rail fence is in front of the barn and shed on the right. Chickens roam about the property in the fenced area.
