Description

A man carries a sack of grain toward the viewer. Another man stands behind him with a full sack of grain standing upright in front of him and another is on the ground to his right. Empty sacks are in a pile on top of something to the man's left. Full sacks are stacked and piled in this area. In the background, on the left one or two men stand on a stack or pile of grain or straw. A thresher chute crosses the background of the photograph. Handwritten on the bottom of the postcard is "Showing his skill at sack swing (?)"
