Description

View of a farm with two barns across from each other. The barn on the right is an English style barn and is older. It also has an addition, likely for animal pens on the left side. A newer gambrel roof barn is on the left of the driveway. Toward the driveway, a set of sliding doors is open. A wagon is parked to the right of this barn in the driveway. Behind the wagon and barn is an orchard with several large barrels standing upright. A man sits on a wagon behind a horse in front of the newer barn. The wagon has baskets of produce toward the back. A large area of plants grow in the foreground in front of the older barn, possibly blueberry bushes. The plants may also be an area of flowers or weeds. It is uncultivated.
