

Basic Detail Report

Taking a Break while Dragging a Field

Date

c. 1910-1915

Medium

photographic print on heavy cardstock

Description

A man sits in a wooden chair with a feed sack on the seat.

He sits and looks toward the left. His hat is placed on the top of the chair on the right. The man's chair is on the top of a wooden drag (possibly handmade) in the middle of a plowed field. The drag is pulled by a three-horse team. On the back of the postcard is handwritten: "Improvise comfort while leveling field before planting." Also handwritten on the back of the card is "Rile with Clarks drag."
