Description

View of a homestead in East Chatham, New York. A gable front-and-wing farmhouse is on the left side of the property and looks as if it was newly constructed. Across a pathway on the right is a small horse stable or barn, also possibly of new construction. A stone wall is in front of the house. A family poses in the photo with their horses. A woman is in the center of the pathway and a young girl is in front of her quite a distance next to the stone wall. on the right, a man stands with two horses, one on either side of him. Another horse team is behind the stone wall and being held in place by a young boy. trees are behind the barn on the right.
