Description

A woman stands outdoors with two goats. She wears a light colored, wrap dress and has her dark hair pulled back. The goats are light and dark colored with mottled fur. A goat stands on either side of the woman. The goat on the right stands against the woman's left side with its leg resting on her thigh. The woman holds the goat at the ankle with her left hand, as she looks down at it with a smile. The second goat, on her left side stands looking toward the left and is hitched to a rope lead that the woman holds around her right arm. Behind the woman and animals, a barn is in partial view. Logs are stacked to the left of the barn. Behind them is a small pen and fenced in area. A small tree is in this area. A wooded hill is in the distance. On the back of the print is written, "Mamie."
