Description

View of a farm on a road on the outskirts of town in Franklin, Delaware County, New York. A large, two-story rectangular barn with sliding doors on the short end facing the farmhouse is the main focus of the photograph.

To the right of the barn is a shed with two consecutively larger additions. This building may be a sap house. An elm tree stands at the end of these buildings. Farm fields are in the foreground. Another farm is on the right side of the photograph near center. Beyond the main farm is the town of Franklin, New York.
