Description

The bottom half of the print shows figures standing and walking through a fair. The men are wearing suits and hats, while the women are wearing dresses and hats. To the right of the crowds are evenly spaced identical buildings with different signs. The most prominent building in the photograph says "SCHOOLS AND VARIED INDUSTRIES." To the left of the crowd are various tents. There is litter on the ground. Behind the figures and structures are hills that create the horizon line. The photo is framed on a black matte.
