Wagon-Making Shop

Date

c.1900

Medium

Photographic paper

Description

A wooden structure, presumably a wagon-making shop, stands in the center of the print. Eleven men and one boy stand in a line in front of the structure. In front of them is the base of a wagon and two runners for bobsleds. Extraneous materials are piled up behind the men. The top half of the print is sky. The print is framed on a tan mat.
