Family in Front of House

Date

1880s Circa

Medium

Photographic paper

Description

A light-colored house with dark shutters is in the center of the print. The house has a porch with vines growing on it.

Two girls stand in front of the house, staring at the camera. There is a lamppost and trees in the front yard of the house. There are two wagons to the left of the house. There is a man in each wagon and a man standing near the side of the house. One wagon says, "J.B. Eaton." A road runs from the left side of the house past the front of the house. The print is framed on a gray mat. ;
