Parade Float at Old Home Week, Rushford, New York

Date

1907

Medium

photographic print on heavy paper

Description

Two men, two women, and two children stand on a wagon decorated with American flags and patriotic banner. Two horses pull the wagon. The wagon stands in the center of the road. Three buildings line the road behind the float. The one furthest to the right has lettering on the front, although the full name is not visible. The legible lettering says: "THE CONCRETE CLOTHING." The building is decorated with American flags and streamers. The postcard is inscribed with the words "Old Home Week Rushford, N.Y. 530 Kellogg Studio" near the bottom left corner.
