Main Street, Sandy Creek, NY

Date

1910

Medium

Photographic print on heavy paper

Description

A road lined with buildings and trees runs down the center of the image. Three buildings stand to the left. Several utility poles line the street on the left side. The closest building on the left has a sign that reads "corner drug store," and a sign on the roof that says "Newton." A man in a wagon pulled by two horses drives by on the right side. Written in white ink on the front, "North Main St. Sandy Creek, N.Y." There is a green, one cent postage stamp on the reverse in the top right corner, along with a smudged ink stamp.
