

Basic Detail Report

Gorham Mill

Medium

photographic print on heavy paper

Description

Two men stand under the awning of the Gorham Mills building. The building is a four story, clapboard structure on a stone foundation. It features a gambrel roof with two dormers. A sign hangs on the side of the building that reads, "Gorham Mills, 1870" The men wear work clothing and hats. A lamppost and large tree is visible in the background.