

Basic Detail Report

Loading Grapes at Sheridan, N.Y.

Date

1912

Medium

photographic print on heavy paper

Description

Two teams of horses stand hitched to two wagons. They stand next to railcars, The doors to the railcars are open and five men are loading grapes onto the train. The car has an "Erie" logo. The teams and men are stopped along a road that runs next to the tracts. Power lines can be seen in the background.