

Basic Detail Report

Two Men Pluck Chickens

Date

c.1900

Medium

Glass plate, collodian emulsion

Description

Two men stand, bent at the waist, each plucking a chicken. The men work in a wooden interior room, two large bowls sit on the floor between them, and a tea kettle sits next to the bowls. An empty cage stands in the corner in the foreground. The men wear dark coats, trousers, and hats. They pluck the chickens with bare hands. Writing on the old paper covering read, "Hawley & Groat, Picking Chickens, 1900"
