Basic Detail Report

Borden's Milk Station, Brisben, New York

Date

c.1907

Medium

photographic print on heavy paper

Description

A building fills the center section of the photo. The building houses Borden's Milk Station. Two doors near the center of the photo are open and have men standing in the doorway. Three wagons drawn by horses line up in front of the building. The first wagon is located directly in front of the door to the right, and is filled with milk cans. The wagons are on a dirt patch and the pathway is arranged with stones. There is a hill behind the building.
