Description

A family rides in a horse-drawn sleigh over a moderate amount of snow wearing heavy winter coats and hats. They are on a roadway and pulled by two dark-colored horses with large star and broad strip facial markings and three-quarter stockings on their hind legs. In the background is a long stump fence likely separating the roadway from farmland. On the back of the postcard the passengers are identified as: Sanford Lemon, Lettie Lemon and daughter, Pearl W and child.
