Two Men in Front of Well

Date

c. 1910-1920

Medium

photographic paper, mat board backing

Description

Two men sit on a wooden bench in the foreground. The older man, whose head is in the center of the print, stares straight at the camera. He is holding a knife in his hands. The other man is located to the left of the first man. He is holding a wooden pole or some piece of farm equipment. There is a wooden structure and windlass located behind the two men, possibly for a well. There are trees in the background.
